Michiel van Rooij

Engineering

European and Dutch Patent Attorney

Partner

Michiel van Rooij joined V.O. in 1999 after he had studied semiconductor nanotechnology at the department of Applied Physics at Delft University of Technology.

He gained wide experience in drafting and defending patent applications in fields ranging from applied physics, food processing and mechanical engineering to information technology. Michiel has successfully defended his clients' rights in numerous patent litigation and opposition proceedings.

Michiel's efficient, expeditious way of working has been commended by his clients, ranging from small businesses to multinationals.

Between 2013 and 2021, Michiel was a board member and treasurer of the Netherlands Institute of Patent Attorneys (Orde van Octrooigemachtigden).
